

"I highly recommend David to any company looking to conquer financial concerns and streamline processes. His ability to turn red to black includes an emphasis on open communications with key staff, challenging the status quo and a no nonsense approach to motivating continuous improvement."

Human Resources Manager - Fish Processing Company

"Dave Feller takes complete and total ownership of your financial performance. He ensures the company is prepared to meet its current obligations, as well as its future challenges. His expansive financial skill set and operational experience contribute to every facet of the organization and provide the fundamental guidance necessary to build a successful and profitable business model".

President – Commercial Bakery

"One of David's many strengths is his ability to attend to the Sales Department needs while still attending to the overall company goals."

Vice President of Sales – Modular Home Manufacturer

"David excelled across a variety of assignments in Operations, Finance and General Management. He has a keen ability to quickly assess and analyze issues, an excellent staff interaction and management style, and outstanding implementation and follow-up capabilities. David has my highest recommendation."

President – Seafood Processor

"David is a professional with a unique blend of communication, organizational, operating, and finance skills needed to successfully reinvigorate a business and drive value creation. In a relatively short period of time, he assessed our business' situation, put in place reporting and organizational tools, led discussions and negotiations with vendors and lenders, and ultimately drove triple-digit growth to our bottom line."

Principal – Private Equity Company

"Dave's attention to detail, reliability, and focus on cost containment and cash flow management proved invaluable to us during our investment. I would have no hesitation in using Dave again, and recommend him unreservedly for any CFO / COO assignments. He is a man of considerable ability and integrity, a winning formula in my view."

Managing Partner - Private Equity Company

"Dave Feller has been my financial and business conscience for over 25 years. I wouldn't undertake a major business decision without his input."

Owner & President – Casting & Machining Company

"David had an immediate positive impact on my business; his quick grasp of our problems and concerns was impressive."

CEO – Modular Home Manufacturer

"Our business was experiencing a sharp growth period, going into which we did not have an established finance function. David was a quick study and installed needed controls, systems, and processes. He also assumed ownership of a stalled ERP implementation, got the project back on track, and was able to launch before our seasonal peak production period."

President – Consumer Goods Manufacturing Company

"David quickly took ownership of our business issues and provided creative solutions that allowed us to regain control of a bad situation. He stayed with us through everything and helped us with communications to and between all stakeholders. His knowledge, insight, motivation, and passion was invaluable to our success."

Owner & President – Lawn & Garden Equipment Distributor

"Thank you for your help and guidance. I've learned tremendously from you. You have helped me to become a better manager, a better president and a better person."
